36. KIBITZ-201
37. Has been known by name since 1945. Acquaintanceship taken up in 1952 through KIBITZ-189
38. Yes. Is considered because of his temperament better suited as an independent operator solely in the Balkan area.
39. Is a fanatic hater of Communism. Just wants to work against them. In addition, he sees in our work the possibility of bettering his economic loss and eventually getting his property back.
- 40.
41. His own anti-Communist motivation. Background as a large-scale agrarian. Steady contact with KIBITZ-189 and through 189 with KIBITZ-15.
42. A German service working together with the Americans against the East
43. Earlier as Volksdeutscher in Yugoslavia worked for Germany.
44. Exploiting his excellent knowledge of languages, as well as his knowledge of land and people in all the Balkans. Speaks the languages and dialects like his mother tongue.
45. An exacting check would be practical and then placing him in the Balkans or among Balkan DPs for anti-Communist activity. Possibly as a business representative for German firms in the Balkans. Could possibly be used by our own bureau.
46. Tactical and tradecraft training.
47. His own conclusions, as well as from former acquaintances and new ones.
- 48.
49. No, except for economic support
50. Yes. Speaks perfectly in every way:
Serbian, Croatian, Hungarian, and German
Partially: Italian and French
51. Large-Scale agrarian; social standing, small aristocracy
- 52.
53. From his previous work is known to be a composed and confident worker. May be considered absolutely reliable and secure as regards his anti-Communism. Would be shot if caught by the Communists.
